Ending time for Tithi are given in hours and minutes. (e.g.: 15.23 is 3:23pm and 28.40 is 4:40 am of the next day.). Time are given in New Zealand Standard Time. According to Amavasyant calendar, a month begins from Shukla Pratipada of each month. This is used commonly in Gujarat, Maharashtra and South India. In contrast, according to Purnimant calendar, a month begins from Krishna Pratipada of each month. This means a month changes at start of Krishna Paksha. Purnimant calendar is popularly used in North India. For Example, this year as per Purnimant calendar, Falgun Month will start on 6 Feb. However, as per Amavasyant calendar, it will start on 21 Feb. Shukla Paksh is same in both calendars. (More information on the last page)

This international calendar indicates major Hindu festival dates for some geographic locations. One of the beliefs is that Indian festivals are to be observed on the day it's celebrated in India. Observance dates from Indian Panchang are valid only in India and are not transferrable to other locations. Since we have different time zone as well as different sunrise & sunset timings, we may not have all festival dates the same as dates in India. Hence, sometimes festivals may appear on the same day as in India or a day later in the South Pacific region.

How to Read this Calendar

This is a Hindu Calendar specially designed for New Zealand. Ending time for Tithi are given in hours and minutes. (e.g.: 15.23 is 3:23pm and 28.40 is 4:40 am of the next day.). Time are given in New Zealand Standard Time. According to Amavasyant calendar, a month begins from Shukla Pratipada of each month. This is used commonly in Gujarat, Maharashtra and South India. In contrast, according to Purnimant calendar, a month begins from Krishna Pratipada of each month. This means a month changes at start of Krishna Paksha. Purnimant calendar is popularly used in North India. For Example, this year as per Purnimant calendar, Falgun Month will start on 6 Feb. However, as per Amavasyant calendar, it will start on 21 Feb. Shukla Paksh is same in both calendars.

Sankashti Chaturthi

Each lunar month in Hindu calendar has two Chaturthi Tithis. The one after Purnima or full moon during Krishna Paksha is known as Sankashti Chaturthi. Devotees of Lord Ganesh keep fast from sunrise to moonrise on Sankashti Chaturthi. Sankashti means rescue during troubled times. Lord Ganesh, the lord of intelligence, symbolizes the remover of all obstacles. Hence it is believed that one can get rid of all obstacles by observing this fast. Sankashti Chaturthi is indicated in calendar with Ganesh ji symbol and Moonrise time.

Durgashtami

Durgashtami fasting is observed every month during Ashtami Tithi of Shukla Paksha. On this day devotees of Goddess Durga worship Her, chant prayers and observe day long fast. Durga Ashtami is indicated in calendar with Devi Durga symbol.

Ekadashi

Ekadashi fasting is observed on every 11th Tithi in Hindu calendar. There are two Ekadashi fasting in a month, one during Shukla Paksha and another during Krishna Paksha. Devotees of Lord Vishnu observe Ekadashi fasting to seek His blessings. Devotees keep strict fast on Ekadashi day and break the fast on next day only after sunrise. Eating of all type of grains and cereals is prohibited during Ekadashi fasting. Devotees can choose to observe fasting without water, with only water, with only fruits, or with one time fasting food. Ekadashi is indicated in calendar with Sankh symbol.

Pradosh

For Pradosh Vrat, day is fixed when Trayodashi Tithi falls during Pradosh Kaal which starts after Sunset. The time window after Sunset when Trayodashi Tithi and Pradosh time overlaps is auspicious for Shiva Puja. Pradosh Vrat is observed to seek blessings of Lord Shiva. Pradosh is indicated in calendar with Shivling symbol.

Sankranti

In Hindu calendar, there are total twelve Sankranti in a year. Among all Sankranti, Makar Sankranti is the most significant one and it is observed throughout India. Sankranti days are considered good for charity activities. Devotees worship Lord Suryanarayan to seek blessings, good health & wealth.

Purnima

Purnima is full moon day in Hindu calendar. It is significant day as many rituals are performed on this day. Devotees observe fasting(Vrat) on this day. Purnima is indicated in calendar with Yellow circle symbol.

Amavasya

Amavasya is new moon day in Hindu calendar. It is significant day as many rituals are performed only on Amavasya Tithi. All Amavasya days are appropriate to perform Shraddha rituals to appease ancestors. Amavasya is indicated in calendar with black circle symbol.

Auspicious Day

Auspicious Days are good day to initiate any new task. Auspicious day is indicated in calendar with Swastik symbol.
